PART II—Section 4

Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 9th May 1953

S.R.O. 186.—The following draft of a further amendment in the Military Lands and Cantonments Service (Class I and Class II) Rules, 1951, which it is proposed to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 280 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), is hereby published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 11th June 1953.

Any objection or suggestion received from any persons with respect to the said draft before the date specified will be considered by the Central Government

Draft Amendment

For rules 7, 9 and 10 of the said Rules the following rules shall be substituted, respectively, namely:—

"7. A candidate selected for appointment to the Service by direct recruitment shall, from the date on which he reports for training as a Cantonment Executive Officer in Class I (Grade II) or in Class II, be required to be on probation for a period which shall not ordinarily exceed 2 years. During this period he shall be required to undergo such course of training in Cantonment and Land Administration as may be prescribed by Government for a period of not less than six months.

9(a) If, in the opinion of Government, the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, Government may discharge him after apprising him of the grounds on which it is proposed to do so and after giving him an opportunity to show cause in writing before such order is passed.

(b) If at the conclusion of the period of probation an officer has not passed the departmental examination mentioned in clause (1) of rule 8, Government may, in its discretion, either discharge him from service or, if the circumstances of the case so warrant, extend the period of probation for such period not exceeding one year as Government may consider fit.

(c) On the conclusion of the period of probation Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or, if his work or conduct has in the opinion of Government been unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him after apprising him of the grounds on which it is proposed to do so and after giving him an opportunity to show cause in writing before such order is passed, or extend the period of probation for such further periods as Government may consider fit.

10. If no action is taken by Government under rule 9 the period after the prescribed period of probation shall be treated as an engagement from month to month, terminable on either side on the expiration of one calendar month's notice in writing, provided that the officer shall have no claim to confirmation."
